Declare Intent, Gov. Williams Urges Stevenson

Adlai Holds Long Conference With Harriman

CHICAGO — Gov. G. Menen Williams of Michigan today joined the growing circle of prominent Democratic leaders urging Adlai E. Stevenson to declare his intentions about the 1956 Democratic presidential nomination.

Williams, who would say only "I am not presently a candidate," when asked about his own intentions toward a presidential nomination, told a news conference "the time is fast approaching" when Stevenson should announce himself.

Stevenson held a long conference Tuesday night with Gov. Averell Harriman of New York, a close personal friend and regarded as a possible opponent of Stevenson's for the nomination at the Democratic national convention next summer.

Williams at a news conference said Stevenson "has first call" upon the Democrats for a nomination if he wants it, "but I think it is proper and incumbent upon him to announce his intentions at a reasonably early time." He would not set a limit in weeks or months.

May Force Eisenhower

The Michigan governor said he assumed that if Stevenson runs, Harriman will not, and that if Stevenson should not make a race, Harriman would be a candidate. He also said he does not believe President Eisenhower has a "personal desire" for a second term "but the Republican Party is turning to him in desperation and they probably will force him to."

Williams said he thought the Democrats could defeat Mr. Eisenhower in 1956 with either Stevenson or somebody else, and said large segments of labor and agriculture are "disillusioned" with Republican leadership.

Harriman went to Stevenson's Libertyville, Ill., farm home on Tuesday night for dinner and a "good long talk."

The two Democrats declined to say whether they talked about the presidency. But Harriman repeated his support for Stevenson in 1956 and said discussion of whether he will run himself is "too iffy" to talk about.

Main Work Overshadowed

The political sideshow all but overshadowed the main work of the governors' conference, which got down to business today with a discussion of highway safety, road-building, and Congress' failure to pass President Eisenhower's highway construction program.

Divorced Wife

Says Stevenson 'Can't Make Up His Mind'

CHICAGO — Adlai E. Stevenson's divorced wife said today he knows President Eisenhower would beat him if they both ran for the presidency in 1956.

Mrs. Ellen Borden Stevenson said her ex-husband would prefer to wait until 1960 for a second bid for the presidency, "but he knows if he does he's politically dead."

Mrs. Stevenson, who divorced her husband while he was governor of Illinois, described him as a "Hamlet" who "can't make up his mind" about running for president. "He loves to be dramatic, you know," she added.

Two Killed in White County Crash

BROWNSVILLE, Ill. — Two men were killed instantly today and a third person was injured in a car-truck collision on Ill. 1 north of here in White county.

Killed were Carl E. Helsel and Roy Tyree, both of Carmi, Monmouth County, Mo. Tyree, believed to be the son of Roy, was taken to Carmi hospital with serious injuries. All three were in a car driven by Helsel.

Authorities said the accident occurred when Helsel pulled out to pass a truck driven by Carl Helsel, Grayville, and crashed head-on into a semi-trailer truck driven by Roy Walker, Jonesboro, Tex. Neither truck driver was injured.

Raymond L. Foster

R. L. Foster Resigns as HTHS Principal

Sudden Action Follows Eight Years at Post Here

Raymond L. Foster today announced he had resigned as principal of the Harrisburg Township high school.

The announcement came suddenly. He said he submitted his resignation at a meeting last night of the board of education of high school. Mr. Foster said he had no definite plans for the future.

Mr. Foster had served eight years as principal of the high school. He came here from Du Quoin, where he was serving as high school principal when he was hired for the local job.

He is one of three principals of Harrisburg Township high school has had since its inception, the other two being Harry Taylor and R. L. McConnell. One of the four buildings on the HTHS campus—Davenport gymnasium—was built during the period he served as principal.

Mr. Foster has been active in the Methodist church during the time he has been in Harrisburg.

A member of the HTHS board of education said this morning that a successor has not been named, but that there might be an announcement in a few days.

'56 License Plates Will Be Light Grey and Ivy Green

SPRINGFIELD — Illinois license plates for 1956 will be "light powder grey" with "ivy green" numerals, Secretary of State Charles F. Carpenter announced Tuesday.

Hemp & Co., Macomb, which has been making the plates for a number of years, again was awarded the contract on its low bid of 33.7 cents per set.

The slogan "Land of Lincoln," again will appear across the top of the plates, with the number directly below, and "19 Illinois '56" across the bottom.

Carpenter said all passenger car plates will be 6 by 12 inches, regardless of the number of numerals on the plate. He said many 1956 plates will be made of aluminum because of lighter mailing costs. Plates for over-the-counter sale will be made of steel, which is 10 cents cheaper per plate than the aluminum plates.

Sheriff Warns Against Speeding on Dorris Heights Road

Sheriff William T. Barrett today warned against speeding on the Dorris Heights road and said that his office would patrol the road from time to time.

Arrests, he said, would be made of auto drivers and riders of motorcycles and motorcycles who travel in excess of the speed limit, he said, is 25 miles per hour.

To Scatter Ashes of Noted Tugboat Captain in English Channel

SOUTHAMPTON, England — The ashes of tugboat Captain Dan Parker, who rushed to save the crippled freighter "Flying Enterprise" two and a half years ago, will go back to sea with his ship next week.

The ashes of the 61-year-old master of the tug "Turmoil" will be scattered in the English Channel, his wife Edith said today. He died in a fall aboard ship Monday. Parker and the Turmoil gained world renown with their rescue of the "Flying Enterprise."

Trustees Boost Rents On All But 2 SIU Housing Units

CARBONDALE, Ill. — Rents were increased on all but two Southern Illinois university housing units by the board of trustees Tuesday.

A $12 per-quarter hike in the rates for Woody and Anthony Hall and a $10 jump in monthly rentals for families of SIU staff members at Southern Acres represent the biggest increases.

The rentals were upped because of heavier maintenance and replacement costs, added operating expenses due to recently approved wage increases, additional maintenance loads on temporary buildings, and an estimated $2,200 annual telephone service bill, for which Auxiliary Services began paying on July 1.

The new rate structure will yield approximately $5,000 to $6,000 in additional revenue for Auxiliary Enterprises, the trustees said, and will take effect "as soon as practicable."

The $1 per week increase at Woody Hall would raise the academic year rate to $576 for room and board, bringing it in line with other state-supported colleges, it was explained.

Rates for single units in the men's residence barracks were upped 98 per quarter, to $57, while double-unit rates jumped $3. Rent at the furnished Chautauqua Co-Op apartments was advanced $2, and Chautauqua housing rentals were increased $3.75 per month on both the student and staff dwellings.

Unaffected by the increase are rates on Southern Acres apartments and residence halls, which are located 12 miles from the main campus. It was explained that the distance differential put present rates at Southern Acres in keeping with proposed rates for other university housing units.

The $1 per week checks were made by North Carolina state troopers at several beaches. Patrol Lt. W. S. Hunt said no attempt was made to give evacuation warnings by using amplifier equipment because "the waves are making so much noise you couldn't hear a loudspeaker."

Towering waves crashed over the sea wall at Atlantic Beach prior to the high tide at noon, but there had been no property damage reported.

TOKYO — Eleven happy American airmen, out of Communist Chinese prisons less than a week, flew towards home and their eagerly waiting loved ones today.

Behind them lay more than two and a half years imprisonment, and for at least one man, Col. John Knox Arnold, the bitter memory of Red torture.

Ahead lay the United States and long-awaited family reunions. The airmen are scheduled to reach Travis Air Base, near San Francisco, Friday night.

The former B-29 crew boarded two plush C-54 transport planes at 1:25 p. m. (12:25 a. m. EDT). When Arnold, their leader, bounded up the boarding ramp two steps at a time, the Tachikawa air base band broke into a rousing "California here I come."

The six officers and five enlisted men, who were released from Red China last Thursday, grinned broadly and waved at the large group of military personnel, Red Cross girls and Japanese employees who saw them off at the air base.

At the men's own request, there will be no family reunions at Travis air base, as originally scheduled. The former prisoners will be whisked away immediately upon arrival in Air Force planes to Air Force bases or commercial airports nearest their homes.

Shoemaker Takes Father's Advice, Quits with $32,000 Winnings in TV Quiz

NEW YORK — "E basta così!" With those words, a little Italian cobbler from the Bronx, Gina Prato, rang down the curtain and retired $32,000 richer today.

Prato, making his fourth appearance on CBS-TV's "The $64,000 Question," had captured the fancy of much of the nation by wading through a series of questions in the category, "opera." The gentle, graying, 55-year-old shoemaker had pyramided his winnings to $32,000 by doing so. Tuesday night, Prato had the opportunity of doubling his stake by tackling another question. He decided to bow out.

"My father in Italy sent me a wire," Prato explained. "It said: 'Fermati dove ti trovi. E basta così.' That means: 'Stop wherever you are. That's enough.'"

"Because I take my daddy's advice when I was a small kid, I take it now."

Prato was presented with his check for $32,000 and kissed it amidst heavy applause from the studio audience. He said he would use some of the money to visit his 92-year-old father who lives in Statale di Ne, Italy, a small village near Genoa. He said he had not seen his father since he left Italy, 33 years ago.

"I will also buy my father a

Hurricane Near Halt; Spins In Giant Circle

Still Uncertain Where Storm Will Hit U. S. Mainland

CAPE HATTERAS, N. C. — Hurricane Connie ground to a near halt 225 miles at sea today and spun around in a giant circle of 125-mile-an-hour winds.

The slowdown gave coastal residents time to flee inland and the roads were jammed with vehicles. It was still uncertain just where the mighty storm, somewhat diminished in power but still a killer, would smack against the U. S. mainland.

"Connie is just spinning around now but our present forecast is that she will head toward Carolina when she begins moving again," Miami chief forecaster Gordon Dunn said. "We are just waiting it out now."

Dunn said Connie's antics approximate almost exactly those of her 1954 sister, Carol. Carol came to rest in almost the same area for two or three days last August, then took off on a north-northeast course, brushed by Cape Hatteras and hit New England Aug. 31 with a punch that killed 66 and caused $500,000,000 damage.

A huge area from South Carolina to New England was alerted for the oncoming storm. Evacuation was started on an orderly basis.

The Noisy Waves

At Wilmington, N. C., the Weather Bureau reported offshore winds had reached steady 45-50 mile per hour velocity at 12:20 p. m. EDT.

House-to-house checks were made by North Carolina state troopers at several beaches. Patrol Lt. W. S. Hunt said no attempt was made to give evacuation warnings by using amplifier equipment because "the waves are making so much noise you couldn't hear a loudspeaker."

Towering waves crashed over the sea wall at Atlantic Beach prior to the high tide at noon, but there had been no property damage reported.

Robert Endicott Moved to Home Here From Cairo Hospital

Robert Endicott, seriously injured a week ago today in an auto-truck crash on Route 37 near Cypress, was moved from St. Mary's hospital at Cairo to his home here yesterday. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Endicott who cut short a vacation trip into the West because of the accident, returned home late Saturday night.

Husband of Former Local Woman Dies

Death followed a lingering illness.

SIU Adds 44 New Faculty Members

CARBONDALE, Ill. — Forty-four new faculty members were added to the Southern Illinois university staff Tuesday.

The board of trustees made 23 continuing appointments and approved 21 term contracts, most of which will be in force between the start of the fall quarter next month and the end of the school year.

Death Takes Mrs. Will May, 53

Mrs. Flora Ella May, 53, of 6 Shaw street, Harrisburg, died in the Lichtner hospital yesterday at 8:10 p. m. Death was due to complications.

She was a former resident of Norris City and came to Harrisburg in 1943. She married Will May in Norris City in 1925.

Besides her husband she leaves her mother, Mrs. May Garrett, Norris City, and ten living children: Troy Bryant, Harrisburg, Dennis Bryant, Norris City, Rella Bryant, Booneville, Miss., Lowell Bryant, Chanute, Kan., Carl May, Harrisburg, Bill May, San Antonio, Tex., Barbara Sue, Bonnie Marie, Linda Irene and Martha Ann May, all of Harrisburg; two step-children: Helen Storey, Norris City, and Sherman May, Indianapolis, Ind.

Also surviving are three brothers, Earl and Luther Garrett, both of Norris City, and Wilson Garrett of Cleveland, Ohio, and a sister, Mrs. Minnie Bryant, Grayville, and 15 grandchildren.

The body lies in state at the Turner funeral home and arrangements are incomplete.

Woman Disappears From Liner In Pacific Fog

TOKYO — The American President liner President Taft, radioed today that a woman passenger had disappeared on the fog-shrouded Pacific on a voyage between Hawaii and Yokohama.

Japanese immigration officers said the lines' agent notified it that a woman identified as Mrs. Lolita Heyn, address unknown, was discovered to be missing Monday morning.

The ship turned back and searched the sea for the woman for three hours but was hampered by fog.

L. J. Baumann, American President Lines manager in Tokyo, said he did not know the home address of the missing woman and "you'll have to wait until the ship docks in a couple of days."

Mrs. Eisenhower Tired—Not Ill, President Says

GETTYSBURG, Pa. — Mrs. Mamie Eisenhower has been resting in bed at the Eisenhower farm since the weekend, but a presidential aide says she is "not ill . . . merely tired."

President Eisenhower disclosed Tuesday that Mrs. Eisenhower's doctor sent her to bed to rest for three days after an active weekend. But the President added that "she is all right."

The President made the remark to a group of Maryland cattle breeders, apparently to explain why Mrs. Eisenhower was not on hand with him to greet them. The group gave the Eisenhowers a registered Holstein heifer.

Later an aide said flatly: "Mrs. Eisenhower is not ill. She is merely tired from a very active weekend. She had some guests. The doctor told her to get a little rest. You know, it has been very hot up here."

Mrs. Eisenhower's health became the subject of political controversy last spring when Democrats questioned whether her physical condition would keep the President from running for reelection. Republicans struck back angrily at the Democrats for bringing up the subject. Later Mr. Eisenhower told a news conference his wife is basically in good health.

Mr. Eisenhower plans to fly back to Washington Thursday morning, but Mrs. Eisenhower will stay at the farm.

After Friday's cabinet meeting, the President will return to the farm for a day or two before leaving for an extended work-and-play vacation in Denver, Colo., probably on Sunday.

It is expected Mrs. Eisenhower will wait to go to Denver until after her husband has returned east to address the American Bar Association in Philadelphia on Aug. 24.

Talking with the breeders about the Gettysburg area, the President said, "The only thing I have against it this summer is the drought." As for Mrs. Eisenhower, he said, "She likes it here; she doesn't want to go to Denver."

President to Leave Sunday for Vacation at Denver, Colorado

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower plans to leave here by plane Sunday afternoon for a work-and-play vacation at Denver, Colo., the White House said today.

Within a day or so of his arrival at Denver, Mr. Eisenhower will go to the Frazier, Colo., ranch of Aksel Nielsen, Denver banker, for about a week of trout fishing.

Mrs. Eisenhower is expected to remain at the Gettysburg, Pa., farm until the President returns Aug. 24 to address the American Bar Assn. at Philadelphia.

MRS. CARRIE WILSON, past 98 years of age, as she left a voting booth Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Wilson, who resides at 403 East Poplar street, votes in Precinct 2. Mrs. Wilson, a life-long citizen of Harrisburg, observed her 98th birthday in April.

Vote a Privilege, Aunt Carrie Wilson, 98, Says

"Why shouldn't I?" asked Mrs. Carrie Wilson, 98-year-old resident of Harrisburg, when asked if she always got out to vote on election day.

The question was posed Tuesday afternoon as Mrs. Wilson, affectionately known as "Aunt Carrie," was preparing to cast her ballot in the special election to elect a state's attorney of Saline county.

Mrs. Wilson, who observed her 98th birthday in April, said she considered it a privilege and the duty of every citizen to cast their vote and take a part in the election of their officials.

The freedom to worship is also considered a great privilege by Mrs. Wilson, a member of the First Presbyterian church of Harrisburg and a regular attendant.

Every Sunday Mrs. Wilson and members of her family occupy one of the front pews in the church.

Apparently many of the residents of Saline county do not have the same feeling toward the freedoms of the ballot and worship, as Mrs. Wilson.

Approximately only 34 percent of the registered voters in Saline county found it convenient to go to the polls Tuesday and cast their ballot for the important office of State's Attorney.

County Clerk Don Garrison stated this morning there are about 21,000 registered voters in the county and yesterday's vote totaled a little more than 7,000.

The same is true of church attendance. Too many times it is either "too hot, too cold, or too something-or-other" to go to church.

But this elderly lady — Mrs. Wilson — practices her citizenship. She attends church regularly and always gets to the polls on election day.

Dancer Sheree North Reveals Secret Marriage

HOLLY WOOD — Leggy blonde dancer Sheree North said today she revealed her six-month secret marriage because "I thought it would be best to make the announcement before I became pregnant."

The shapely, 23-year-old film star disclosed her marriage to scenarist-song writer John (Bud) Freeman, 38, to "keep the neighbors from talking" about the man in the house. Studio publicists claim the marriage was secret even from the couple's close friends and studio associates.

The former Broadway dancer skyrocketed to fame when she did a sexy dance on Bing Crosby's television show and then got Marilyn Monroe's role in "How To Succeed In Business Without Really Trying."

She said she and Freeman were married in Quartzite, Ariz., Feb. 20. The dancer previously was married to architect Fred Bassire, whom she divorced in 1952. She has a 5-year-old daughter.

Eisenhower Signs, Criticizes Reserve Bill

WASHINGTON — A possible new fight over segregation in the nation's defense forces loomed today as a result of President Eisenhower's criticism of the new compulsory military reserve bill.

Mr. Eisenhower signed the measure into law Tuesday, but he sharply criticized the bill's failure to bring the National Guard under the compulsory reserve program.

Criticizing Congress for failure to include National Guard features in the bill, the President said he has serious doubts the guard can "fully attain" its planned size and readiness without amendments to the law.

He said he is instructing Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson and the Joint Chiefs of Staff to review National Guard programs and standards "to determine whether they meet the imperative requirements of our first line defenses."

This requested proviso was left out of both House and Senate bills to avoid stalling the measure after adoption of an anti-segregation clause involving the National Guard had temporarily stymied the bill in the House.

Mr. Eisenhower repeatedly criticized moves in Congress to tack on an anti-segregation amendment, labeling this "extraneous" to the purpose of the bill.

Anna Man Dies of Injuries; Wife Held

ANNA, Ill. — Everett Norris, 31, Anna, died at Union County hospital early today after being struck on the head by his wife with a two-by-four piece of lumber.

Authorities are holding Mrs. Betty Norris in Union county jail. Charges were to be placed against her later today.

Authorities said they did not know what led Mrs. Norris to strike her husband.

Carrier Mills Man Escapes from Menard

Donald Nolen, 28, of Carrier Mills, escaped yesterday from Menard penitentiary, it was learned today.

It was reported that Nolen, serving a term for auto theft in Jackson county, walked off the honor farm about 6:30 p. m. and made his getaway.

Defeats John W. Biggers, 3,750 to 3,396

Term to Fill Vacancy Will Run Until December of 1956

Robert V. Wilson, Eldorado, will be the new state's attorney of Saline county.

Wilson, the Democratic candidate in yesterday's special election to name a state's attorney to fill an unexpired term, defeated John W. Biggers, Harrisburg attorney, by approximately 350 votes.

The term to which Wilson has been elected will run until the first Monday in December 1956. It is the term to which Glen O. Jones was elected in 1952.

Jones resigned in January of this year to become a state senator and K. C. Ronalds has been serving by appointment until yesterday's election could name a successor.

Complete, unofficial figures show that Wilson received 3,750 votes to 3,396 for the Republican nominee, Take Over After Canvass.

Eldorado voters gave their local candidate a rousing majority of nearly 900 votes in the balloting. Unofficially Wilson got 1,251 to 390 for Biggers in Eldorado township.

In Harrisburg township, Biggers had an edge of about 360 votes.

The new state's attorney will take over when the vote is canvassed and he receives his commission from Springfield.

Biggers, the defeated candidate, has served as assistant state's attorney for the past six and a half months. The winner has been city attorney at Eldorado.

Contract for Ag Building Approved By SIU Trustees

CARBONDALE, Ill. — A $1,773,450 contract for a School of Agriculture building was approved by the Southern Illinois University board of trustees Tuesday.

At the same time, University officials were authorized to increase to $4,350,000 their request for federal loans to build new dormitory units.

The contract for the new School of Agriculture was awarded to the Ames, Iowa, firm of Ames and Norman and Son, Marion. Included in the total contract figure is $140,779 for technical laboratory furniture and equipment which will be supplied by the Walrus Manufacturing Co., Decatur.

The board of trustees previously authorized the University to seek a loan of $2,250,000 from the Housing and Home Finance Agency to assist in the construction of four dormitory units, a dining hall, and site development. A decision on that loan is pending, though $1,385,000 in state appropriations for the dormitories has already been released. The University now has permission to ask an additional $2,000,000 in federal funds for three more dormitories on the same site.

Each of the proposed three-story residence halls will contain 28,750 square feet of floor space, providing housing facilities for 129 students in each unit. Contracts will be awarded as funds are made available by the

State's Chief of Health Disagrees With Stratton on Fluoridation Benefits

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — The state's chief of dental health today was in disagreement with Gov. William G. Stratton about whether the benefits of fluorides in drinking water have been proven.

In the current issue of the State Health Department's Illinois Health Messenger, Dr. Orvis S. Hoag, deputy director of the division of dental health, states "there is no longer any doubt" about the worth of fluorides to prevent tooth decay.

But the governor last month vetoed a bill to permit cities to hold referendums on adding fluorides to water supplies.

Said Stratton in his veto message: "The question of fluoridation of drinking waters appears to be highly controversial. Even men trained in the professions pertaining to public health are not in full agreement.

"Until the benefits or dangers of fluoridation have been more completely established, it would seem the question of adding fluorides is not one that should be submitted to a referendum."

But said Hoag: "The criticism of fluoridation, where it has been raised, has come chiefly from the uninformed. One of the charges against this procedure is that final results of the study are not yet known."

But Hoag said completion of 10-year studies at Grand Rapids, Mich., and Newburgh-Kingston, N. Y., "emphatically pointed out the measure's safety and effectiveness."

Fluoridation as a public health measure represents, potentially, another great landmark in man's fight against disease. There is no longer any doubt as to the benefits to be derived from this safe and effective measure," Hoag said.

Officials of a number of cities failed to see any significance in the governor's veto of the referendum bill. They pointed out their cities and others had either held referendums on the subject of adding fluorides to drinking water supplies or the addition of fluorides was ordered by ordinance.

A Message to the Voters of Saline County

Now that our special election for State's Attorney is over, I would like to express my congratulations to the successful candidate, Mr. Wilson, and my appreciation to the many friends who helped me in my own campaign. The fine vote I received is very gratifying to me, and I know the many new friends I have made during the campaign will always be close ones. I am positive that Saline County is going to have a fine State's Attorney, and we should all do what we can to support him in his new position.

Sincerely,

John W. Biggers

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON SAYS:
President Celebrates Congress
Vacation By Stepping Up Golf
Schedule; Secret Service Lapse Once Permitted "Russian" On Burning Tree Course; Bankruptcies At All-Time High Despite Prosperity.

WASHINGTON. — With Congress out of town, President Eisenhower is spending more time on the golf course at Gettysburg and at the Burning Tree club just outside of Washington.

Caddies at Burning Tree have got to know the President almost as well as some members of the cabinet know him. As far as golf is concerned they know him better.
And some of the caddies have quite a collection of his golf balls, the gift to Ike of a sporting goods firm, with "Mr. President" stamped on them. The President usually gives one or two away during a match, but they are kept as souvenirs by the lucky recipients and never put back into play.

Golfing companions have noted a special improvement in Ike's driving: He consistently pokes 'em off the tee for 200 yards or longer.
However, he is still a little erratic in his putting and approach shots, particularly on "chip" shots that have to be lofted over a trap. He works on this whenever he has time to practice on the White House lawn.

In a regular match the President shoots in the high 80's, better than average at Burning Tree. But he is a fierce competitor, hates to lose to anyone, even his son John, now stationed at near-by Fort Belvoir, Va. John hits a longer ball but is not as good a putter as his father, who usually beats him by a few strokes.

Other favorite golfing cronies of the President include Col. Tom Belshe, retired army officer;
Jack Westland of Washington, and GOP Congressman Charlie Halleck of Indiana and Les Arends of Illinois. Westland was National Amateur golfing champion in 1952. However, Ike keeps his favorite sport on a bipartisan plane by sometimes inviting Rep. George Mahon of Texas or another Democrat to join in a foursome.

DANGER ON GOLF COURSE

SHIRD vs. WEA ETAO EEE
The President insists on splitting caddy fees with his foursome partner. Counting tips, this usually is $7 for 18 holes, making Ike's share $3.50. He always pays off in crisp new bills. At the end of a match, he "replays" his good and bad shots while under the shower or while chatting with fellow players over refreshments at the "19th hole."

Ike is an eager beaver type on the green and moves so fast after teeing off that he sometimes is standing over his ball while companions, who may be lying farther from the green and therefore are entitled to the next shot, are preparing to swing again. This causes some concern at Burning Tree.

"Suppose," remarked one of Ike's golfing pals, "one of us should accidentally hit the President while he is standing there ahead of us.
He is such a strong competitor and so engrossed in his game that he doesn't think about the possibility of getting conked by a stray ball."

When the President is advised of his risky position, he apologizes and steps back with a grin so the game can go on. The Secret Service keeps a vigilant eye on the chief executive, though not out of fear that he may be hit by a golf ball. One of Ike's favorite golfing stories is about a Secret Service "lapse" one day when he was playing at Burning Tree.

Secret Service agents were at the entrance gate, checking automobiles and their occupants. Merle Thorpe, former editor of Nation's Business, drove up and was asked his name. Without blinking an eye, Thorpe reeled off the most Russian-sounding name he could make up, with a "ski" on the end of it.

"Pass on in," said the agent without hesitation.

RECORD BANKRUPTCIES

Despite the full-blown prosperity in most of the U. S., bankruptcy cases in the same U. S. are at an all-time high. This probably represents the difficulty of small business to compete against the modern methods of big business.

How many companies are going bankrupt is indicated by the recent request of the Commerce Department for the largest amount of money in history for salaries to referees in bankruptcy. Acting on this request, the House Banking and Currency committee stated:

"The committee was advised that approximately 65,000 bankruptcy cases will be filed in 1955, that a total increase of 75,000 in 1956 can be expected. This would be the highest number of bankruptcies recorded in the history of the country."

Eisenhower had a talk with top Republican leaders in Congress just before they left Washington, and explained to them what his strategy would be in regard to a special session of Congress.

Now Ike is the last one who would want a special session of Congress. He doesn't particularly relish having Congress in town, and always feels bitter when they're out of town.

But he notified leaders that he would call a meeting of his council of economic advisers in late September and get from them a prognostication in regard to the economic condition of the nation.
They have been warning him that runaway inflation might cause trouble around the spring of '56.
This is the worst time from a political point of view for the Republican party to have a recession.

But the White House economic advisers, though not entirely unianymous, have feared that the tremendous sale of automobiles this year, plus the sale of houses, most of it installment-plan buying, might overload consumer buying and lead to a retrenchment.

Therefore, if the President's economic advisers take a dim view of the future in late September, Eisenhower told congressional leaders he would call Congress back in October to pass a highway bill.
This would provide new spending and stave off any recession.

Note — Meanwhile some of the publicity experts around the White House—and Ike has a lot of them —are undertaking a grassroots drive to put the heat on congressmen while they're at home to stop sentiment for a highway bill.

On July 12, Secretary of the Army Wilber Brucker flew to Omaha, Neb., to be guest speaker at the 37th reunion of the famed Rainbow Division, of which he is a member. Because he was going in an official capacity, then Secretary of the Army Robert Stevens gave him the use of his plane.
Rather than fly alone, Brucker contacted some Rainbow veterans around Washington and took them along. Some guests complained at having to leave Omaha early and miss the big party, but all were impressed by Brucker's thoughtfulness. . . . President Eisenhower hasn't given up his atoms-for-peace ship. In a private letter to Connecticut's GOP Congressman Jim Patterson, Ike wrote: "The reasons underlying our plan for such a ship are no less impelling now than when it was first considered. The world, by and large, today considers atomic science as having a destructive purpose, and as being of primary importance only to two great world centers — Washington and Moscow. We simply must demonstrate convincingly to the world, in as many ways as we can, and to as many peoples as we can, that we are determined to utilize atomic science to improve the lot of man. I deeply believe that the atoms-for-peace ship should dramatize these efforts all over the world."

Miss Dorothy Jean Adams, Lt. James Elmer Hill Wed in Eldorado Ceremony

Mrs. James Elmer Hill

Miss Dorothy Jean Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Adams, 704 Dewey street, Eldorado, became the bride of Lt. James Elmer Hill, 2217 Pine street in Eldorado, in an impressive ceremony Saturday evening, Aug. 6.

The wedding was at 7:30 at the First Methodist church in Eldorado. The altar of the church was decorated with baskets of white and pink gladioli and chrysanthemums, fern and other greenery. Branched candelabra with burning white and pink tapers illuminated the sanctuary where the bridal party met and the family pews, carrying out the pink and white color scheme, were marked with flowers and tied with satin streamers.

Rev. A. B. Clodfelder, pastor of the church, read the double ring marriage vows in the presence of a large group of relatives and friends.

Mrs. Lou Beck at the organ played a medley of appropriate music and also accompanied Bill Johnson who sang "Because," "With This Ring I Thee Wed" and "The Lord's Prayer" as a benediction at the close of the ceremony.

Immediately before the ceremony the candles were lighted by Teny Hill and Carolyn Bowling.

The bride, dressed in the traditional white satin gown, came down the white runner aisle on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage. The dress was a Maurer original of Nylebrade lace and tulle over satin. The fitted lace bodice was fashioned with a scoop neckline and long tapered sleeves that came to a point over the band. A wide band of matching lace enhanced the very bouffant skirt which fell into a sweeping train and was worn over a hoop petticoat. Her veil of imported illusion was secured to a lace crown trimmed with tiny seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white gardenias.

Mrs. Moran Kuykendall of Temple, Texas, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor and she wore a ballerina length gown of bluish pink crystallite. Pink silk roses were worn in her hair, and she carried a fan shaped bouquet of pink roses and pink carnations.

Bridesmaids were Miss Janice Sutton of Eldorado, Miss Linda Casper of Anna, Miss Louis Nepote of Benld, and Miss Patti Farnner of Marion. They wore identical gowns and head pieces fashioned like those of the matron of honor. Their bouquets were also fan shaped of pink roses and pink carnations.

Moran Kuykendall of Temple, Texas, was best man and Carroll Bowling, Hal Bruce Burnett and Bill Fry of Eldorado and John Meekles of Litchfield were the groomsmen. All the men in the wedding party wore summer formal attire.

Mrs. Adams chose for her daughter's wedding a French blue chantilly type lace and a corsage of pink roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue linen dress with champagne colored accessories and a shoulder corsage of pink roses.

Immediately following the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride's table was beautiful, covered with an organdy cloth with lace insertion over pink taffeta. The shell pink three tiered wedding cake was mounted on a silver plateau mirror. The arch on the second tier held a pitch of love birds and the cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom. After the bride and bridegroom had cut the first piece of cake Mrs. Gene Choisser of Eldorado and Miss Margie Walker of Herrin served the cake to the guests and Misses Teny Hill, Judy Carter and Carolyn Bowling presided at the punch bowl. They were all dressed in summer formals.

The home was decorated throughout with large bouquets of gladioli and the fire place was lovely with a large basket of gladioli and greenery.

For her going away outfit the bride wore a navy and white silk dressmaker's suit with white accessories and a gardenia corsage from her bridal bouquet. Following the reception the couple left through a shower of rice for a wedding trip to an unknown destination. They will return to Eldorado before leaving for Little Rock, Ark., where Lt. Hill will be stationed with the Strategic Air Command with the B-47 Bomber Group.

Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of the Eldorado high school. The bride attended Southern Illinois university at Carbondale for two years and the bridegroom attended the University of Illinois one year and Murray State college for one year before entering the armed forces.

Breakfast Meeting Held By P&PW Club

The August breakfast meeting of the Harrisburg Business and Professional Women's club was held Tuesday at 7 a. m. in the fellowship hall of the First Christian church.

After the club collect was read by Mrs. Nelle Meyers, a delicious breakfast of orange juice, bacon, eggs, hot biscuits, coffee, jelly and sweet rolls was served by the members of the Loyal Daughters class.

A short business session was conducted by the president, Miss Meriam Evans, during which the highlights of the leadership conference held at Hillsboro on Sunday, Aug. 7, was given by the president, Mrs. William Sloan Jr., State International chairman, gave a fine report of her workshop on International Relations. Miss Irene Beasley, Public Affairs chairman, also attended the conference.

Announcement was made of the leadership training conference to be held Aug. 21 at Macomb, also National Business & Professional Women's week Sept. 25 to Oct. 1. Plans are being made for a banquet with the local club as hostess to the other three clubs in this district.

Shower Honors Miss Eugenia Goliher

Miss Mary Anne Humm was hostess at a shower for Miss Eugenia Goliher Monday evening at the Humm home. Miss Goliher is to be married Friday and Miss Humm will be her maid of honor.

Eighteen young ladies were present and were greeted by Miss Edna McCue and Mrs. David Guard. The Humm home was decorated in keeping with the bridal shower with a silver umbrella and white ribbon streamers hanging from the hall chandelier over a white table where the gifts for the prospective bride were placed.

Bridal games were played with Miss June Blackard and Miss McCue winning prizes. The girls were each given match folders with white net, silver ribbon and forget-me-not trim. The same trim was used on the nut cups.

After the many beautiful and useful gifts were by the guest of honor refreshments of punch and individual cakes with an arrow-pierced heart bearing the names of Miss Goliher and her husband-to-be, Bill Plater, were served.

Guests were Mrs. David Guard, Mrs. David Patterson and Mrs. Don Kendall, and Misses Edna McCue, June Blackard, Jean Abney, Ann Funkhouser, Carol Richmond, Sally Russler, Bonita Booten, Carol Thaxton, Mary Taylor, Sherry Hensley, Letitia Skaggs, Connie Ingram, Margaret Ann Brashear and the guest of honor and hostess, Miss Betty Butler, who is out of town, was unable to be present.

W. C. Curtis, former resident of Galatia, who now lives in West Frankfort, is seriously ill at his home. He would like to hear from friends or have them visit at his home. His address is 905 South Odie street, West Frankfort.

Mrs. Leo Reed, 130 West Park street, entered the Lightner hospital today, to undergo surgery.

After the song, "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross," Mrs. Sutton prayed that every Baptist woman will feel she must do something in her home, in her business and social life to stamp out the evils of beverage alcohol.

She was assisted in presenting the program by Mrs. Ron Ziegler, Mrs. Don Boyd, Mrs. Pat Gilley and Mrs. James Sowers.

After the lesson a chapter in the missionary study book "Light in Yumuri" was discussed by Mrs. Morman.

Refreshments of punch and dainty cookies were served to those mentioned and to Miss Barbara Fearheiley and Mrs. George Aud and little Jimmie Sowers, son of Mrs. James Sowers.

Archie Moore Claims Marciano Has Lost Punch

NORTH ADAMS, Mass. (AP)—Challenger Archie Moore quietly defied the kayo lightning to strike him today as he observed that "Rocky" Marciano has lost his punch.

Champion Marciano, meanwhile was hard at work at his training camp in Grossinger, N. Y., trying to sweat off the extra poundage he picked up during a weekend off from training to attend his sister's wedding.

"I think Marciano has lost his punch," said Moore at his camp here. "In his last fight he hit Don Cockell with everything but the ring posts and Cockell finally collapsed rather than being knocked out. Jimmy Slade knocked out Cockell in four rounds and it took Marciano eight rounds to do it."

Moore sparred one round each Tuesday with Johnny Jenkins, Clint Bacon and Joe Bakst, the 260-pound former heavyweight contender.

Marciano isn't anything close to 260 pounds, but he did tip the scales at an even 200 Tuesday, when he returned from his "week-end off." Manager Al Weill said he expects the champion to weigh about 187 for the title fight at Yankee Stadium, Sept. 20.

U. S. to Protect Neutral Group In Korea: Dulles

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles said today that the United States has told the Republic of Korea it will protect Communist members of the neutral nations inspection team in South Korea.

He said South Korea should not use force to oust the Communist Polish and Czech members of the inspection team from Korea. However, he said the United States sympathizes with South Korea's dislike of the Communist members.

As for the troublesome problem of reunification of Korea and other divided nations, Dulles said that to do so by war could only lead to the horror of atomic and hydrogen devastation.

Dulles told a news conference that South Korean President Syngman Rhee clearly understands the United States obligation under the armistice to protect Communist members of the inspection team in South Korea.

The Korean discussion arose when a reporter asked Dulles to comment on South Korean demonstrations aimed at ousting Polish and Czech members of the inspection team by Saturday.

Some responsible quarters were represented as believing the United States may use large scale armed force, if necessary, to keep South Korea from upsetting the Korean armistice.

Four Hurt When Auto Goes Out of Control in Chicago

CHICAGO (AP)—Four persons were injured today when an automobile went out of control on busy West Randolph street near Wells in the Chicago loop and ran over the sidewalk through a crowd of pedestrians.

The car smashed the glass door of a (John R. Thompson) restaurant at 180 West Randolph. All those hurt were pedestrians.

The injured persons, three women and a man, were taken to Hennepin hospital. The man was said to be in critical condition.

A witness said that the car which ran out of control had been driven up to a parking position in front of the Palace theater, to allow its passengers, three nuns, to get out.

One of the nuns was alighting from the front seat and apparently jogged the car into gear. It headed across the street, struck a parked car, jumped the curb and smashed into the plate glass door.

None of those in the moving car or the parked one was hurt.

The injured were Janice Topczewski, 18, Harriet Fleming, Edith Fischer and Anthony Scarnavek, 59, all of Chicago. Scarnavek's condition was reported to be critical.

Police said that Mrs. Walter Miller of Joliet, Ill., drove the nuns to Chicago to see "Cinerama Holiday." The nuns were Sisters Thea, Verna, Vermilla, Silveria and Marlene of St. Joseph's Convent in Joliet.

Dandelion and bacon salad is a favorite dish in the French province of Champagne.

Policeman Killed In Hotel Room; Woman Claims Accident

CHICAGO (AP)—A married policeman was killed Tuesday night in a hotel room he shared with the woman he had allegedly been "keeping company" with for 12 years.

Police said Mrs. Catherine Lonergan, 43, admitted firing the shot which killed Detective John L. Kelly, 43, in a room at the Croydon Hotel on the Near North Side.

Mrs. Lonergan insisted it was an accident. Police Lt. Joseph Cavanaugh said.

Cavanaugh said Mrs. Lonergan told him she and Kelly made a practice of meeting at the Croydon and did so Tuesday night.

Kelly, who was attached to the sex bureau, left a wife and three teen-aged daughters. Mrs. Lonergan said she had been "keeping company" with the policeman since she separated from her husband 12 years ago, police said.

Mexico Suspends Pan-American Automobile Race

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Auto racing was jolted again today by a reaction to recent tragic accidents with the announcement by the Mexican government that it has suspended the sixth annual Pan-American road race scheduled for Dec. 25.

In the first five runnings of the Pan-American race, from the southern border of Mexico to the northern border, several spectators were killed in accidents and many more injured.

The suspension order from the office of President Adolfo Ruiz Cortinez said that all racing automobiles would be barred from federal highways "until regulations give ample assurance of safety for spectators."

Mexico's action follows the temporary suspension of auto road racing in France after the tragedy at Le Mans which claimed 87 lives, and the withdrawal of the American Automobile Association from racing in the United States.

Dulles Nudges Red China to Free American Civilians

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles today diplomatically nudged Red China to free U. S. civilians still held behind the Bamboo curtain.

Dulles also told a news conference it has not yet been decided what action to take on torture charges made against Red China by its recently freed U. S. airmen.

The secretary said it is unfortunate that Red China, during negotiations at Geneva, had not made it possible for the American civilians to come home quickly.

He pointed out that Red Chinese Premier Chou En-lai had said the number of Americans in Red China is quite small and their future should be settled quickly.

Unhappily, Dulles said, that statement has not been realized.

U. S. to Continue Defense Build-Up, Sec'y Wilson Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States will continue its billion dollar-a-year defense building regardless of Russia's current goodwill campaign.

Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson made that clear in a news conference late Tuesday when he said that he did not foresee any letdown in defense programs as a result of the Geneva Big Four meeting.

"The meeting was a good thing," Wilson said. But "it is much too early to appraise what will come from it."

American policy, he said, is to maintain "a reasonable posture of military strength for the long pull."

Wilson said there must be no alterations in the military program because of "any apparent change in the situation—propaganda of assumed enemies or wishful thinking on our part."

Rails Accept Board Findings

CHICAGO (AP)—Railroad managements today announced acceptance of the recommendations of a presidential emergency board for settlement of a wage-rules dispute with the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers.

A statement was issued here in behalf of the carriers conference committees, representing the eastern, western and southeastern railroads. Spokesmen said the "railroads" acceptance of the board's report is based on the principle that all of the board's recommendations will be made effective and not just a part of them.

The board reported to President Eisenhower Aug. 1. It recommended varying pay increases for yard workers represented by the firemen's union when they convert to a five-day week. It also recommended further negotiation on working rule changes proposed by the carriers, and that the changes be arbitrated if no agreement is reached in negotiation.

The board recommended a 12 1/2-cent hourly increase for most yard firemen, instead of the present 4-cent hourly, when they got on the shorter work-week. The pay increases for yard firemen would not be granted unless and until a five-day week is put in effect on all railroads.

Sparta Rocked By Tavern Blast

SPARTA, Ill. (AP)—An explosion blew out windows and part of a wall and rocked Main street here early today.

The explosion occurred in a back room of a tavern, which Charles Odum had just decorated and stocked and was ready to open for business.

About two months ago, a similar explosion wrecked another tavern at Coulterville, which Odum had closed up just the night before.

The explosion today blew out all the windows in the new tavern, part of a back wall and the stairs leading to Odum's living quarters upstairs.

Odum and his family were trapped in the living quarters for about 30 minutes after the explosion wrecked the stairs. No one was injured.

The explosion also shattered windows in four or five buildings on both sides of the tavern.

Authorities investigating the explosion speculated that a bomb of some type was planted in the back room.

Eisenhower Signs Bill to Extend Small Business Aid

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower officially put the Small Business Administration back in business Tuesday, signing into law a two-year extension of its authority to help small business.

Technically the agency had expired midnight July 31, when a temporary extension passed by Congress a month before had run out. Only on the last day of the session, Aug. 2, did a bill finally pass to keep the agency alive.

Night Baseball Plans Outlined To Kiwanis Club

Plans which have been developed for "little league" night baseball project were outlined to members of the Kiwanis club last night at the Masonic temple by Bob Karnes. Accompanying Karnes to the meeting were Hughie Walker, Charles "Huck" Gee and James "Bud" Sowers.

Karnes praised the Kiwanis club for its sponsorship during the past few years of the summer baseball program which provides supervised play for about 300 boys. But, he pointed to the need for night baseball for boys through the age of 20 which would permit parents and crowds to attend the evening games.

He said an estimate of $4,000 has been made to construct a grandstand, for lights and to fence in a ball park with materials being purchased at cost and labor donated. The sponsors have received favorable comment from business men and from labor unions. Karnes stated.

Approximately $2,000 has been donated and the sponsors are asking civic clubs to help raise the rest of the money from contributors. The VFW has donated $500 and will pay the 10-year lease for a field.

Karnes stated the project probably could not be completed this year but would be in operation in full by next year. Expense money would be raised, it is planned, by operation of a concession stand, collections and exhibition games. No charge would be made for admission to the little league games. The Kiwanis club will hold its annual ladies' night fish fry next Tuesday, Aug. 16, at Cave-in-Rock state park. It will begin at 5:30.

Looking AT Sports

By BILL MELTON

Darwin Valter, new coach at Shawneetown high school, is eagerly looking forward to the coming basketball season. Talked with him a few days ago—discussed the great record compiled by Shawneetown last season and the prospects for the coming season. Made the remark, "Won't be long until the season rolls around." Coach Valter said "Wish school started tomorrow and basketball season the next day."

When Valter issues the first call for basketball practice he should have seven of last year's first ten among the group. Absent will be two of the big three—Newsom, Spottsville and Nolen were usually looked upon as the outstanding members of the team and only Nolen will be back.

Valter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Valter of Ridgway, is a graduate of the Ridgway high school and lettered in basketball his senior year. He attended Kemper Military Academy and received his BS in physical education at Tulane university. He received a commission in the U. S. Army from Kemper and served two years with the Infantry as a second lieutenant.

Darwin Valter

Two members of Eldorado high school's 1954-55 winning basketball team—Keith Whittier and Ed Lissak—have announced they plan to attend SIU this year. Both boys are good prospects for the SIU basketball squad. Whittier, the more experienced, is a rugged 6-footer with lots of potential as a college player. Lissak, who played only one year of varsity ball, stands 6-2 1/2 and needs only to develop more spirit to take his place with the better players in the area.

A boy who figures in Coach Claude Shelton's basketball plans at Carrier Mills is in the Lightner hospital with a badly cut left foot that may put him on the shelf. Jim Rouse, who as a sophomore was developing fast as the season closed, received a mangled foot several days ago while using a power mower. The mower hit a brick and bounced back against his left foot, cutting the tendon at the base of the big toe and shattering the foot bones. He will be in the hospital at least until the end of this week and it will be some time before it will be known if he will be slowed down as a result of the injury.

Did You Know—First football practice in Illinois high schools may be held Monday, Aug. 29, less than three weeks from now. It's later than you think!

Boston Stops Yankees, 4-1, Behind Nixon; Pierce Hurls Two-Hitter for White Sox

By United Press

They're calling Willard Nixon the New York Yankees' No. 1 nemesis today but they'd be more accurate if they called the Boston Red Sox "Mr. Clutch" and let it go at that.

For the big sinker-baller is shaping up as the key pitcher of the torrid American league race because of his uncanny ability to beat the other first division teams. Nixon's fine 12.5 overall record is enhanced by the fact that he has a composite showing of 10-3 against the other four contenders and owns 10 of the 23 wins the Red Sox have scored against the Yankees, Chicago White Sox, and Detroit Tigers.

Nixon turned in a neat six-hitter to beat the Yankees, 4-1, before a crowd of 61,678 at Yankee Stadium Tuesday night. It marked the fourth time in five tries this year that he beat the Yankees and gave him a brilliant two-year record of eight victories and two losses against them.

It's no surprise, therefore, that Nixon has earned a reputation as a "Yankee killer" but that's only part of the story. He's also beaten the first-place White Sox and fifth-place Tigers three times each. Moreover, in the last 14 days he's beaten the White Sox twice and the Tigers once in addition to Tuesday night's triumph over the Yankees.

Nixon became nauseated twice during Tuesday night's duel with Willard Ford and had to sit out his sixth straight triumph since June 30. Billy Klaus hammered a two-run homer in the first inning, Grady Hatton homered in the fourth and Nixon himself drove in the Red Sox' final run with a double. Willard walked four and struck out four.

The loss, combined with victories by the White Sox and Indians, dropped the Yankees into third place only a half game ahead of the Red Sox. The Red Sox trail the White Sox by a game and a half and Cleveland by one game.

Pierce Pitches Two-Hitter
Billy Pierce pitched a brilliant two-hitter as the White Sox snapped a four game losing streak and held onto first place with a 4-1 victory over the Kansas City Athletics. Pierce, who won his eighth game, had a one-hitter until the ninth when Bill Wilson homered.

The White Sox wrapped it up with a three-run second-inning rally in which Pierce singled home a run and Minnie Minoso delivered a two-run triple.

Ray Narleski came through with a shutout performance in his 40th relief job of the season to preserve rookie Herb Score's 11th win in a 4-2 verdict over the Tigers. Gene Woodling delivered three hits for the Indians, who ended a three game losing streak.

Roy Sievers hit a pair of two-run homers to lead the Washington Senators to a 6-3 victory after Bill Wright's second straight four-hit pitching effort enabled the Baltimore Orioles to win their opener, 1-0, in the other American league games.

Dodgers Beat Giants
In the National league, the runaway Brooklyn Dodgers overcame Willie Mays' two-run first-inning homer to edge out the New York Giants, 3-2, when Marv Grissom walked Don Hoak with the bases filled and two out in the 10th inning. Clem Labine received credit for his 11th win after relieving Johnny Podres. In case the rest of the league hadn't noticed, the Dodgers started the game with a three game losing streak.

The Milwaukee Braves solidified their hold on second place with a 6-2 win over the St. Louis Cardinals behind Warren Spahn's seventh hit. Hank Aaron hit his 24th homer for the Braves and Stan Musial No. 24 for the Cardinals.

Herman Wehmeier raised his career record to 22-7 against the Pittsburgh Pirates when his five-hitter paced the Philadelphia Phillies to a 9-1 triumph and the Chicago Cubs squeezed out a 4-3 victory over the Cincinnati Redlegs in other games. It was the Cubs' sixth straight win.

State Lists 15 Most Dangerous Highway Spots

SPRINGFIELD — The crossing of Ill. 72 and Ill. 59 near Elgin in Cook County turned up again today as the most "accident-prone" spot in Illinois.

The intersection topped the list of the 15 most dangerous crossings in the state, based on state highway engineers' figures for a three-year period. It also was at the top of the list last year.

The "most dangerous" intersection had an accident rate of 9.4 per million vehicles, highest rate in the state.

A Livingston County intersection near Dwight at U. S. 66 and Ill. 47 was second highest, with an accident rate of 70 accidents per million vehicles. Third was at U. S. 66 and U. S. 24 near Chenoa in McLean County, with a rate of 7.8.

State highway engineers average the accident rates once a year on a three-year basis, and the current figures are for 1952-54, with the traffic volume based on 1953 records.

One Crossing Drops When 1955 figures are in, the 1952 figures will be dropped and the 1953-55 average compiled.

One accident-prone crossing dropped sharply in 1952-54 listings after a high accident rate in 1951. Only one accident was reported at Ill. 83-68 near Wheeling in Cook County in 1954, making the three-year average 5.5 when a year earlier it had been 7.6.

District highway engineers keep a close watch on the accident ratings, in an effort to see what can be done to lessen the danger. Sometimes obstructions to the motorists' view can be removed, or a traffic light installed.

Highway engineers said often the accident rate at a given intersection goes down for no apparent reason, or, similarly, goes up.

dangerous crossings often are reflected in the figures from year to year.

List 15 Crossings Engineers point out that traffic volume alone doesn't account for high accident rates. The crossing at Ill. 72-59 had an average traffic volume of 4,000 vehicles per day. But many intersections, with as many as 20,000 vehicles per day had accident rates considerably below 5.

Here's the rest of the list of the 15 intersections with an average of five or more accidents per million vehicles for 1952-54:

4. U. S. 52 and 45, Will County, near Andros — 6.8.

5. Ill. 173 and 131, Lake County, near the Wisconsin border — 6.7.

Cabinet Approves Japanese Build-Up

County, near Norris City — 6.0.

9. U. S. 54 and 24 east, Iroquois County, near Gilman — 5.6.

10. U. S. 136 and Ill. 121, Logan County, near Tazewell County line — 5.9.
